

Privacy Notice (How we use pupil information)

At Upton-by-Chester High School, we aim to provide a positive, aspirational learning environment to support our children to achieve their potential. In order to do this we need to work in partnership with parents, students, governors, the Local Authority and carefully selected outside agencies.

We are the Data Controller for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the personal data we hold is used to support our teaching and learning, monitor and report on your child's progress and to provide appropriate pastoral care.

Upton-by-Chester High School complies with the GDPR requirements and is registered as a "Data Controller" with the Information Commissioner's Office (Reg. No. Z5826772).

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information (such as grades, forecasts and exam/test results)
- Medical information (such as allergies, medication)
- Special Educational Needs
- Behaviour information (positive and negative behaviour and exclusion information)
- CCTV footage
- Post 16 learning information
- Student destination information when they leave the school

Why we collect and use this information

We collect and hold personal information relating to our students and those involved with their care. We may also receive information from any schools previously attended, the Local Authority and/or the Department for Education (DfE).

We use this personal information to:

- support pupil learning
- support pupil welfare
- monitor and report on pupil progress
- provide appropriate pastoral care
- assess the quality of our services
- process any complaints and grievances
- provide a cashless catering service
- protect any vulnerable individuals
- prevent and detect crime
- comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

The main reason that the school processes personal data is because it is necessary in order to comply with the school's legal obligations and to enable it to perform tasks carried out in the public interest.

The school may also process personal data if at least one of the following applies:

- In order to protect the vital interests of an individual
- There is explicit consent
- For establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in a judicial capacity
- For reasons of public interest in the area of public health
- For reasons of substantial public interest, based on law, which is proportionate in the circumstances and which has provided measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interest of the individual.

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

Personal data will not be retained by the school for longer than necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are collected. The school keeps all records on students until they reach the age of 25 years old.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil's attend after leaving Upton-by-Chester High School
- our Local Authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the NHS
- Awarding bodies and exam boards
- Tour companies providing school trips
- Social services and linked agencies for health and welfare (MASH, CAMS, Educational Psychologists)
- Police
- School photography companies
- SISRA (an online service that allows us to assess performance and ability) and other third party learning providers
- Aspens Services Limited to provide on-site cashless catering services

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under Section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once he/she reaches the age 16.

Pupils aged 16+

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis

- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. Requests for personal information must be made in writing and addressed to the Headteacher, Upton-by-Chester High School, St James Avenue, Chester CH2 1NN.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations
