What can I speak to MyWell-being Online about?

We can support you with a range of issues; which may include:

- Relationships
- Exam stress

What will happen when I complete the contact form?

The team will email you to ask a few more questions. This will help us to know how we can best support you before beginning your online support.

Our online sessions last about 15 minutes. If at the end of your session, either you or the team feels we need more time to chat and explore things further, we will arrange a time when we can talk online in more detail.

The information you share with the MyWell-being Online Team in our online chats and sessions are confidential

When a worker or organisation says that you can speak to them confidentially, this means that they won't tell anyone else what you say.

The only time they will share information is if you have agreed or if they are very worried about your safety or the safety of others.

MyWell-being Online is not a crisis service

The team is part of the 5-19 Health and Well-being Service.

The team can only respond to you on the day we have agreed and are not able to respond to you in a crisis or outside of the service hours listed on our website.
