

Upton-by-Chester High School

Suspension and Permanent Exclusion Policy

Policy Link
SLT	Mrs K McCarthy
Governor	Mr P Ivison
Statutory	Yes

To	Date
Full Governing Body	27 September 2023
Next Review	27 September 2024
Make available on:	Yes/ No
School website	Yes
Staff shared area	Yes

'Learning to shape the future'

Contents

1. Aims	3
2. Legislation and statutory guidance.....	3
3. Definitions.....	4
4. Roles and responsibilities	4
5. Considering the reinstatement of a learner	8
6. Independent review	10
7. School registers	12
8. Returning from a suspension.....	13
9. Remote access to meetings	14
10. Monitoring arrangements	14
11. Links with other policies	15
Appendix 1: independent review panel training.....	16

1. Aims

At Upton-by-Chester High School we are committed to following all statutory exclusions procedures to ensure that every learner receives an education in a safe and caring environment.

Our school aims to:

- Ensure that the exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently
- Help governors, staff, parents and learners understand the exclusions process
- Ensure that learners in school are safe and happy
- Prevent learners from becoming NEET (not in education, employment or training)
- Ensure all suspensions and permanent exclusions are carried out lawfully

A note on off-rolling

Our school is aware that off-rolling is unlawful. Ofsted defines off-rolling as:

“The practice of removing a learner from the school roll without a formal, permanent exclusion or by encouraging a parent to remove their child from the school roll, when the removal is primarily in the interests of the school rather than in the best interests of the learner.”

We will not suspend or exclude learners unlawfully by directing them off site, or not allowing learners to attend school:

- Without following the statutory procedure, contained in the School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012, or formally recording the event, e.g. sending them home to 'cool off'
- Because they have special educational needs and/or a disability (SEND) that the school feels unable to support
- Due to poor academic performance
- Because they haven't met a specific condition, such as attending a reintegration meeting (following a Fixed Term Suspension)
- By exerting undue influence on a parent to encourage them to remove their child from the school

2. Legislation and statutory guidance

This policy is based on statutory guidance from the Department for Education: Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement - from September 2023.

It is based on the following legislation, which outlines schools' powers to exclude learners:

- Section 51a of the Education Act 2002, as amended by the Education Act 2011
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012
- In addition, the policy is based on:
- Part 7, chapter 2 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which sets out parental responsibility for excluded pupils
- Section 579 of the Education Act 1996, which defines 'school day'

- The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007, as amended by The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014

- The Equality Act 2010

- Children and Families Act 2014

3. Definitions

Suspension – when a learner is removed from the school for a fixed period. This was previously referred to as a ‘fixed-term exclusion’.

Permanent exclusion – when a learner is removed from the school permanently and taken off the school roll. This is sometimes referred to as an ‘exclusion’.

Off-site direction – when a governing board of a maintained school requires a learner to attend another education setting temporarily, to improve their behaviour.

Parent – any person who has parental responsibility and any person who has care of the child.

Managed move – when a learner is transferred to another school permanently. All parties, including parents and the admission authority for the new school, should consent before a managed move occurs.

4. Roles and responsibilities

4.1 The Headteacher

Deciding whether to suspend or exclude

Only the headteacher, or acting headteacher, can suspend or permanently exclude a learner from school on disciplinary grounds. The decision can be made in respect of behaviour inside or outside of school. The headteacher will only use permanent exclusion as a last resort.

A decision to permanently exclude a learner will be taken only:

- In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school’s behaviour policy, and
- If allowing the learner to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of others

A decision to suspend a learner may be taken when the Headteacher feels it is necessary to provide a clear signal of what is unacceptable behaviour as part of the school behaviour policy. This may be in response to one off incidents or persistent behaviour issues.

Before deciding whether to suspend or exclude a learner, the Headteacher will:

- Consider all the relevant facts and evidence on the balance of probabilities, including whether the incident(s) leading to the exclusion were provoked
- Allow the learner to give their version of events
- Consider whether the learner has special educational needs (SEN)
- Consider whether the learner is especially vulnerable (e.g. the learner has a social worker, or is a looked-after child (LAC))

- Consider whether all alternative solutions have been explored, such as off-site direction or managed moves

The headteacher will consider the views of the learner, in light of their age and understanding, before deciding to suspend or exclude, unless it would not be appropriate to do so.

Learners who need support to express their views will be allowed to have their views expressed through an advocate, such as a parent or social worker.

The headteacher will not reach their decision until they have heard from the learner, and will inform the learner of how their views were taken into account when making the decision.

Informing parents (or the learner where they are 18 or older)

If a learner is at risk of suspension or exclusion the Headteacher will inform the parents/ learner as early as possible, in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the learner's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the headteacher decides to suspend or exclude a learner, the parents/learner will be informed, in person or by telephone, of the period of the suspension or exclusion and the reason(s) for it, without delay.

The parents/learner will also be provided with the following information in writing, without delay:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- Information about the parents'/learner's right to make representations about the suspension or permanent exclusion to the governing board and, where the learner is attending alongside parents, how they may be involved in this
- How any representations should be made
- Where there is a legal requirement for the governing board to hold a meeting to consider the reinstatement of a learner, and that parents/the learner have a right to attend the meeting, be represented at the meeting (at their own expense) and bring a friend
- That parents/the learner have the right to request that the meetings be held remotely, and how and to whom they should make this request
- If the learner is of compulsory school age, the headteacher will also notify parents without delay and by the end of the afternoon session on the first day their child is suspended or permanently excluded, that:
 - For the first 5 school days of an exclusion (or until the start date of any alternative provision or the end of the suspension, where this is earlier), the parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. This will include specifying on which days this duty applies
 - Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this
- If alternative provision is being arranged, the following information will be included, if possible:
 - The start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged
 - The start and finish times of any such provision, including the times for morning and afternoon sessions, where relevant
 - The address at which the provision will take place
- Any information the learner needs in order to identify the person they should report to on the first day

If the headteacher does not have all the information about the alternative provision arrangements by the end of the afternoon session on the first day of the suspension or permanent exclusion, they can provide the information at a later date, without delay and no later than 48 hours before the provision is due to start.

The only exception to this is where alternative provision is to be provided before the sixth day of a suspension or permanent exclusion, in which case the school reserves the right to provide the information with less than 48 hours' notice, with parents' consent.

If the headteacher cancels the suspension or permanent exclusion, they will notify the parents/learner without delay, and provide a reason for the cancellation.

Informing the governing board

The headteacher will, without delay, notify the governing board of:

- Any permanent exclusion, including when a suspension is followed by a decision to permanently exclude a learner
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion which would result in the learner being suspended or permanently excluded for a total of more than 5 school days (or more than 10 lunchtimes) in a term
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion which would result in the learner missing a National Curriculum test or public exam
- Any suspension or permanent exclusion that has been cancelled, including the reason for the cancellation

Informing the local authority (LA)

The headteacher will notify the LA of all suspensions and permanent exclusions without delay, regardless of the length of a suspension.

The notification will include:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion
- The length of a suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent

For a permanent exclusion, if the learner lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the headteacher will also, without delay, inform the learner's 'home authority' of the exclusion and the reason(s) for it.

The headteacher must notify the LA without delay of any cancelled exclusions, including the reason the exclusion was cancelled.

Informing the learners social worker and/or virtual school head (VSH)

If a:

- Learner with a social worker is at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion, the headteacher will inform the social worker as early as possible

- Learner who is a looked-after child (LAC) is at risk of suspension or exclusion, the headteacher will inform the VSH as early as possible

This is in order to work together to consider what factors may be affecting the learner's behaviour, and what further support can be put in place to improve the behaviour.

If the headteacher decides to suspend or permanently exclude a learner with a social worker/a learner who is looked after, they will inform the learner's social worker/the VSH, as appropriate, without delay, that:

- They have decided to suspend or permanently exclude the learner
- The reason(s) for the decision
- The length of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- The suspension or permanent exclusion affects the learner's ability to sit a National Curriculum test or public exam (where relevant)
- They have decided to cancel a suspension or permanent exclusion, and why (where relevant)

The social worker/VSH will be invited to any meeting of the governing board about the suspension or permanent exclusion. This is so they can provide advice on how the learner's background and/or circumstances that may have influenced the circumstances of their suspension or permanent exclusion. The social worker should also help ensure safeguarding needs and risks and the learner's welfare are taken into account.

Cancelling suspensions and permanent exclusions

The headteacher may cancel a suspension or permanent exclusion that has already begun, or one that has not yet begun, but only where it has not yet been reviewed by the governing board. Where there is a cancellation:

- The parents (or the learner if they are 18 or older), governing board and LA will be notified without delay
- Where relevant, any social worker and VSH will be notified without delay
- The notification must provide the reason for the cancellation
- The governing board's duty to hold a meeting and consider reinstatement ceases
- Parents (or the learner if they are 18 or older) will be offered the opportunity to meet with the headteacher to discuss the cancellation, which will be arranged without delay
- The learner will be allowed back in school without delay

Any days spent out of school as a result of any exclusion, prior to the cancellation, will count towards the maximum of 45 school days permitted in any school year.

A permanent exclusion cannot be cancelled if the learner has already been excluded for more than 45 school days in a school year or if they will have been so by the time the cancellation takes effect.

Providing education during the first 5 days of a suspension or permanent exclusion

During the first 5 days of a suspension, if the learner is not attending alternative (AP) provision, the Headteacher will take reasonable steps to ensure that achievable and accessible work is set and marked for the learner. Online pathways such as (Google Classroom/Oak Academy/Academy 21 and Nissai) may be used for this. If the learner has a special educational need or disability, the headteacher will make sure that reasonable adjustments are made to the provision where necessary.

If the learner is looked after or if they have a social worker, the school will work with the LA to arrange AP from the first day following the suspension or permanent exclusion. Where this isn't possible, the school will take reasonable steps to set and mark work for the learner, including the use of online pathways.

4.2 The governing board

Considering suspensions and permanent exclusions

Responsibilities regarding suspensions and permanent exclusions are delegated to the Pastoral Committee consisting of at least 3 governors.

The Pastoral Committee has a duty to consider parents'/the learner's (if they are 18 or older) representations about a suspension or permanent exclusion. It has a duty to consider the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded learner (see sections 5 and 6) in certain circumstances.

Within 14 days of receiving a request, the governing board will provide the secretary of state and the LA with information about any suspensions or exclusions within the last 12 months.

For any suspension of more than 5 school days, the governing board will arrange suitable full-time education for the learner. This provision will begin no later than the sixth day of the suspension.

The governing board does not have to arrange such provision for learners in their final year of compulsory education who do not have any further public exams to sit.

Monitoring and analysing suspensions and exclusions data

The governing board will review, challenge and evaluate the data on the school's use of suspension, exclusion, off-site direction to alternative provision, and managed moves.

The governing board will consider:

- How effectively and consistently the school's behaviour policy is being implemented
- The school register and absence codes
- Instances where learners receive repeat suspensions
- Interventions in place to support learners at risk of suspension or permanent exclusion
- Any variations in the rolling average of permanent exclusions, to understand why this is happening, and to make sure they are only used when necessary
- Timing of moves and permanent exclusions, and whether there are any patterns, including any indications which may highlight where policies or support are not working
- The characteristics of suspended and permanently excluded learners, and why this is taking place
- Whether the placements of learners directed off-site into alternative provision are reviewed at sufficient intervals to assure that the education is achieving its objectives and that learners are benefiting from it
- The cost implications of directing learners off-site

4.3 The local authority (LA)

For permanent exclusions, the LA will arrange suitable full-time education to begin no later than the sixth school day after the first day of the exclusion.

For learners who are looked after or have social workers, the LA and the school will work together arrange suitable full-time education to begin from the first day of the exclusion.

5. Considering the reinstatement of a learner

The governing board: Pastoral Committee will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended or permanently excluded learner within 15 school days of receiving the notice of the suspension or exclusion if:

- The exclusion is permanent

- It is a suspension which would bring the learner's total number of days out of school to more than 15 in a term; or

- It would result in a learner missing a public exam or National Curriculum test

Where the pupil has been suspended, and the suspension does not bring the learner's total number of days of suspension to more than 5 in a term, the governing board: Pastoral Committee must consider any representations made by parents/the learner (if they are 18 or older). However, it is not required to arrange a meeting with parents/the learner and it cannot direct the headteacher to reinstate the learner.

Where the learner has been suspended for more than 5, but not more than 15 school days, in a single term, and the parents/learner make representations to the board, the governing board: Pastoral Committee will consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended learner within 50 school days of receiving notice of the suspension. If the parents/learner do not make representations, the board is not required to meet and it cannot direct the headteacher to reinstate the learner.

Where a suspension or permanent exclusion would result in a learner missing a public exam or National Curriculum test, the governing board: Pastoral Committee will, as far as reasonably practicable, consider and decide on the reinstatement of the learner before the date of the exam or test. If this is not practicable, the chair of the governing board (or the vice-chair, if necessary) may consider the suspension or permanent exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the learner.

The following parties will be invited to a meeting of the governing board and allowed to make representations or share information:

- Parents, or the learner if they are 18 or older (and, where requested, a representative or friend)
- The learner if they are aged 17 or younger and it would be appropriate to their age and understanding (and, where requested, a representative or friend)
- The headteacher
- The learner's social worker, if they have one
- The VSH, if the learner is looked after
- A representative of the local authority

Governing board meetings can be held remotely at the request of parents, or learners if they are 18 or older. See section 9 for more details on remote access to meetings.

The governing board will try to arrange the meeting within the statutory time limits set out above and must try to have it at a time that suits all relevant parties. However, its decision will not be invalid simply on the grounds that it was not made within these time limits.

The governing board: Pastoral Committee can either:

- Decline to reinstate the learner, or
- Direct the reinstatement of the learner immediately, or on a particular date (except in cases where the board cannot do this – see earlier in this section)

In reaching a decision, the governing board: Pastoral Committee will consider:

- Whether the decision to suspend or permanently exclude was lawful, reasonable, and procedurally fair
- Whether the headteacher followed their legal duties
- The welfare and safeguarding of the learner and their peers
- Any evidence that was presented to the governing board

They will decide whether or not a fact is true 'on the balance of probabilities'.

The clerk will be present when the decision is made.

Minutes will be taken of the meeting, and a record kept of the evidence that was considered. The outcome will also be recorded on the learner's educational record, and copies of relevant papers will be kept with this record.

The governing board: Pastoral Committee will notify, in writing, the following stakeholders of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay:

- The parents, or the learner if they are 18 or older
- The headteacher
- The learner's social worker, if they have one
- The VSH, if the learner is looked after
- The local authority
- The learner's home authority, if it differs from the school's

Where an exclusion is permanent and the governing board: Pastoral Committee has decided not to reinstate the learner, the notification of decision will also include the following:

- The fact that it is a permanent exclusion
- Notice of parents'/the learner's (if they are 18 or older) right to ask for the decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel
- The date by which an application for an independent review must be made (15 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the governing board's decision is given to parents)
- The name and address to which an application for a review and any written evidence should be submitted
- That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, it should include reference to how the learner's special educational needs (SEN) are considered to be relevant to the permanent exclusion
- That, regardless of whether the excluded learner has recognised SEN, parents have a right to require the LA to appoint an SEN expert to advise the review panel
- Details of the role of the SEN expert and that there would be no cost to parents for this appointment
- That parents must make clear if they wish for an SEN expert to be appointed in any application for a review
- That parents may, at their own expense, appoint someone to make written and/or oral representations to the panel, and parents may also bring a friend to the review
- That, if parents believe that the permanent exclusion has occurred as a result of unlawful discrimination, they may make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the first-tier tribunal (special educational needs and disability), in the case of disability discrimination, or the county court, in the case of other forms of discrimination. Also that any claim of discrimination made under these routes should be lodged within 6 months of the date on which the discrimination is alleged to have taken place

6. Independent review

If parents/the learner (if they are 18 or older) apply for an independent review within the legal timeframe, the LA will, at their own expense, arrange for an independent panel to review the decision of the governing board not to reinstate a permanently excluded learner.

Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents/learner by the governing board: Pastoral Committee of its decision to not reinstate the learner or, if after this time, within 15 school days of the final determination of a claim of discrimination under the Equality Act 2010 regarding the permanent exclusion. Any applications made outside of this timeframe will be rejected.

Independent reviews can be held remotely at the request of parents/learner. See section 9 for more details on remote access to meetings.

A panel of 3 or 5 members will be constituted with representatives from each of the categories below. Where a 5-member panel is constituted, 2 members will come from the school governor category and 2 members will come from the headteacher category. At all times during the review process there must be the required representation on the panel.

- A lay member to chair the panel who has not worked in any school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer
- Current or former school governors who have served as a governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last 5 years, provided they have not been teachers or headteachers during this time
- Headteachers or individuals who have been a headteacher within the last 5 years

A person may not serve as a member of a review panel if they:

- Are a member of the LA of the excluding school
- Are the headteacher of the excluding school, or have held this position in the last 5 years
- Are an employee of the LA, or the governing board, of the excluding school (unless they are employed as a headteacher at another school)
- Have, or at any time have had, any connection with the LA, school, governing board, parents or learner, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their impartiality
- Have not had the required training within the last 2 years (see appendix 1 for what training must cover)

The panel must consider the interests and circumstances of the learner, including the circumstances in which the learner was permanently excluded, and have regard to the interests of other learners and people working at the school.

Taking into account the learner's age and understanding, the learner or their parents will be made aware of their right to attend and participate in the review meeting and the learner should be enabled to make representations on their own behalf, should they desire to.

Where a SEN expert is present, the panel must seek and have regard to the SEN expert's view of how SEN may be relevant to the learner's permanent exclusion.

Where a social worker is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how the learner's experiences, needs, safeguarding risks and/or welfare may be relevant to the learner's permanent exclusion.

Where a VSH is present, the panel must have regard to any representation made by the social worker of how any of the child's background, education and safeguarding needs were considered by the headteacher in the lead up to the permanent exclusion, or are relevant to the learner's permanent exclusion.

Following its review, the independent panel will decide to do 1 of the following:

- Uphold the governing board's decision
- Recommend that the governing board reconsiders reinstatement
- Quash the governing board's decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only if it judges that the decision was flawed)

New evidence may be presented, though the school cannot introduce new reasons for the permanent exclusion or the decision not to reinstate. The panel must disregard any new reasons that are introduced.

In deciding whether the decision was flawed, and therefore whether to quash the decision not to reinstate, the panel must only take account of the evidence that was available to the governing board at the time of making its decision. This includes any evidence that the panel considers would, or should, have been available to the governing board and that it ought to have considered if it had been acting reasonably.

If evidence is presented that the panel considers it is unreasonable to expect the governing board to have been aware of at the time of its decision, the panel can take account of the evidence when deciding whether to recommend that the governing board reconsider reinstatement.

The panel's decision can be decided by a majority vote. In the case of a tied decision, the chair has the casting vote.

Once the panel has reached its decision, the panel will notify all parties in writing without delay.

This notification will include:

- The panel's decision and the reasons for it
- Where relevant, details of any financial readjustment or payment to be made if the governing board does not subsequently decide to offer to reinstate the learner within 10 school days
- Any information that the panel has directed the governing board to place on the learner's educational record

7. School registers

A learner's name will be removed from the school admission register if:

– 15 school days have passed since the parents/learner (if they are 18 or older) were notified of the governing board's: Pastoral Committee decision to not reinstate the learner and no application has been made for an independent review panel, or

- The parents/learner have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent review panel

Where an application for an independent review has been made within 15 school days, the governing board will wait until that review has concluded before removing a learner's name from the register.

While the learner's name remains on the school's admission register, the learner's attendance will still be recorded appropriately. Where alternative provision has been made for an excluded learner and they attend it, code B (education off-site) or code D (dual registration) will be used on the attendance register.

Where excluded learners are not attending alternative provision, code E (absent) will be used.

Making a return to the LA

Where a learner's name is to be removed from the school admissions register because of a permanent exclusion, the school will make a return to the LA. The return will include:

- The learner's full name
- The full name and address of any parent with whom the learner normally resides
- At least 1 telephone number at which any parent with whom the learner normally resides can be contacted in an emergency
- The grounds upon which their name is to be deleted from the admissions register (i.e. permanent exclusion)
- Details of the new school the learner will attend, including the name of that school and the first date when the learner attended or is due to attend there, if the parents have told the school the learner is moving to another school
- Details of the learner's new address, including the new address, the name of the parent(s) the learner is going to live there with, and the date when the learner is going to start living there, if the parents have informed the school that the learner is moving house

This return must be made as soon as the grounds for removal is met and no later than the removal of the learner's name.

8. Returning from a suspension

8.1 Reintegration strategy

Following suspension, or cancelled suspension or exclusion, the school will put in place a strategy to help the learner reintegrate successfully into school life and full-time education.

Where necessary, the school will work with third-party organisations to identify whether the learner has any unmet special educational and/or health needs.

The following measures may be implemented, as part of the strategy, to ensure a successful reintegration into school life for the learner:

- Maintaining regular contact during the suspension or off-site direction and welcoming the learner back to school
- Daily contact in school with a designated pastoral professional
- Mentoring by a trusted adult/ Pastoral Support Manager
- Regular reviews with the learners and parents to praise progress being made and raise and address any concerns at an early stage
- Informing the learner, parents and staff of potential external support

Part-time timetables will not be used as a tool to manage behaviour and, if used, will be put in place for the minimum time necessary.

The strategy will be regularly reviewed and adapted where necessary throughout the reintegration process in collaboration with the learner, parents, and other relevant parties.

8.2 Reintegration meetings

The school will clearly explain the reintegration strategy to the learner in a reintegration meeting before or on the learner's return to school. During the meeting the school will communicate to the learner that they are getting a fresh start and that they are a valued member of the school community.

The learner, parents, a member of senior staff, and any other relevant staff (usually the Head of Year/Pastoral Support Manager) will be invited to attend the meeting.

The meeting can proceed without the parents in the event that they cannot or do not attend.

The school expects all returning learners and their parents to attend their reintegration meeting, but learners who do not attend will not be prevented from returning to the classroom.

9. Remote access to meetings

Parents, or learners if they are 18 or older, can request that a governing board meeting, or independent review panel be held remotely. If the parents/learner don't express a preference, the meeting will be held in person.

In case of extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances, which mean it is not reasonably practicable for the meeting to be held in person, the meeting will be held remotely.

Remotely accessed meetings are subject to the same procedural requirements as in-person meetings.

The governing board and the LA should make sure that the following conditions are met before agreeing to let a meeting proceed remotely:

- All the participants have access to the technology which will allow them to hear, speak, see and be seen
- All the participants will be able participate fully
- The remote meeting can be held fairly and transparently

Social workers and the VSH always have the option of joining remotely, whether the meeting is being held in person or not, as long as they can meet the conditions for remote access listed above.

The meeting will be rearranged to an in-person meeting without delay if technical issues arise that can't be reasonably resolved and:

- Compromise the ability of participants to contribute effectively, or
- Prevent the meeting from running fairly and transparently

10. Monitoring arrangements

The school will collect data on the following:

- Attendance, permanent exclusions and suspensions
- Use of learner referral units, off-site directions and managed moves
- Anonymous surveys of staff, learners, governors and other stakeholders on their perceptions and experiences

The data will be analysed every half term by Mrs K McCarthy, Deputy Headteacher and the Directors of Key Stage. Mrs K McCarthy will report back to the Headteacher/governors via the Pastoral Committee.

The data will be analysed from a variety of perspectives including:

- At school level
- By age group
- By time of day/week/term
- By protected characteristic

The school will use the results of this analysis to make sure it is meeting its duties under the Equality Act 2010. If any patterns or disparities between groups of learners are identified by this analysis, the school will review its policies in order to tackle it.

This policy will be reviewed by Mrs K McCarthy, Deputy Headteacher every 2 years. At every review, the policy will be approved by and shared with the governing board: Pastoral Committee.

11. Links with other policies

This policy is linked to our:

- Behaviour policy
- Drugs Policy
- SEND policy
- SEN information report

Appendix 1: independent review panel training

The LA must make sure that all members of an independent review panel and clerks have received training within the 2 years prior to the date of the review.

Training must have covered:

- The requirements of the primary legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing suspensions and permanent exclusions on disciplinary grounds, which would include an understanding of how the principles applicable in an application for judicial review relate to the panel's decision making
- The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice
- The role of the chair and the clerk of a review panel
- The duties of headteachers, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010
- The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (acts of public authorities unlawful if not compatible with certain human rights) and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act